

Come Enjoy the Great White Way!

Have you been to a production in a theatre town, such as Toronto? Do you dream of experiencing Broadway as it was meant to be, with amazing theatrical productions, world-class food, and luxurious hotels?

Then come to New York!

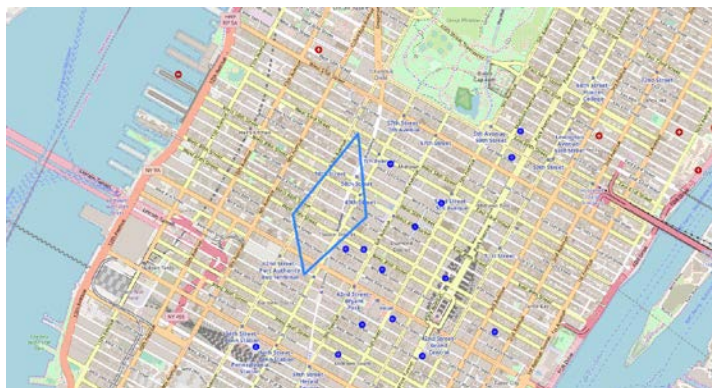

In New York, you'll have the choice of productions at 39 theatres in New York's Theatre District, which encompasses approximately 12 blocks by two avenues in central New York. With eight shows a week, you could see a new show everyday for nearly five weeks!

Figure 1. Map of New York City Theatre District

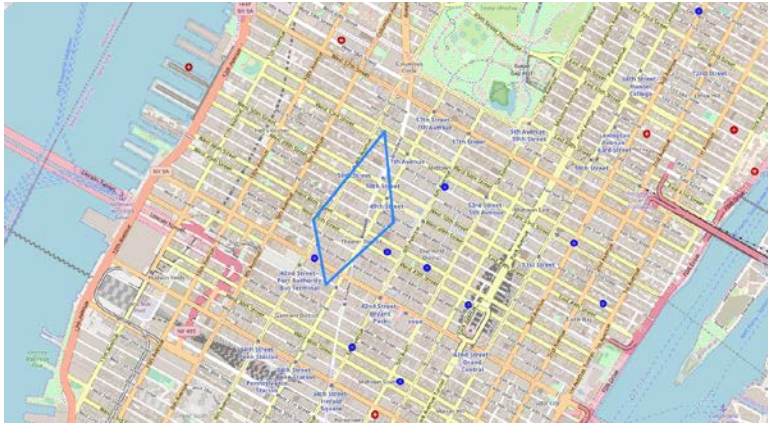

After you see a show, retire for the evening in a world class hotel. While you may be slightly outside the Theatre District, you'll never lack for the perfect room for your stay.

Figure 3. Hotels near the New York City Theatre District

And when you are ready to dine, enjoy a variety of options at world-class establishments! Choose from a cozy nook near the Theatre District, or travel beyond your limits to experience a once-in-a-lifetime meal!

Figure 5. Restaurants near the New York City Theatre District

So come to New York! The amenities in New York City are vastly superior to any town you've been in. There are many hotels and the multitude of restaurants is enticing.

See you on the Great White Way!